

Subject: Aircraft Logbook signoffIssue Date: 01/11*CA No: 01

Compliance Alert

Aircraft logbook signoff is a very critical function. You must ensure compliance with the requirements stated below. If you have any concern or issue with compliance, contact QA immediately.

Aircraft Logbook signoff

(For maintenance performed)

- 1- Received airline logbook training (training documented).
- 2- Written authorization from airline to perform signoff.
- 3- Knowledgeable and understand FAR part 121.709(verification required).

Release to Service or Airworthiness Signoff

(For maintenance performed & AWR)

- 1- Received airline AWR logbook training(training documented)
- 2- Written authorization from airline to perform AWR signoff.
- 3- Received aircraft general familiarization or has work experience on applicable aircraft.
- 4- Knowledgeable and understand FAR part 121.709(verification required).
- 5- Meet airline requirements for AWR signoff.(a copy of requirements must be in training file).
- 6- Form RSF-23 completed and signed.
- 7- Form RSF-24 completed and signed.

Compliance is your safety net